

Please let the Satellite Radio companies broadcast weather and road reports. The regular AM and FM stations never tell the route numbers when giving road reports. They just tell the names of the expressways. If you don't live in that town, you don't know which roads they're talking about. The Satellite radio companies use route numbers to give reports. I'm an over the road truckdriver and this is very important to me.